2. Contract

2.1 The Contract consists of the following documents:

(a) the Purchase Order; and
(b) these Purchase Order Conditions.

2.2 Rio Tinto may enter the Contract as principal and/or agent for any member of the Rio Tinto Group.

2.3 Rio Tinto may purchase the Supply for use by a Rio Tinto User.

2.4 The Supplier’s printed terms and conditions, or any other terms and conditions provided by the Supplier, on any documentation or instrument will be of no force and effect.

2.5 The Contract can only be amended by agreement in writing signed by the Parties.

2.6 The Contract does not create any exclusive supply relationship between the Supplier and any member of the Rio Tinto Group. Rio Tinto is not obliged to procure any minimum level of Supply from the Supplier.

3. Supply

3.1 The Supplier must perform the Supply according to the Purchase Order Conditions and on receipt of a Purchase Order.

3.2 Receipt of a Purchase Order will be taken to have occurred 2 Working Days after it is sent to the Supplier unless the Supplier acknowledges receipt earlier.

3.3 The Supplier must, at its own cost and risk, provide all Personnel and Equipment necessary to perform the Supply.

3.4 The Supplier must, at its own cost and risk, provide all Deliverables to the Rio Tinto Company, in any format reasonably requested by the Rio Tinto Company. The Deliverables are owned by the Rio Tinto Company and the Supplier assigns any IPR in the Deliverables to the Rio Tinto Company.

3.5 Time is of essence in relation to the Supplier’s performance of the Contract.

4. Contract Price and Payment

4.1 The Supplier will provide the Supply for the Contract Price.

4.2 All payments under the Contract will be made in the currency stated in the Contract by telegraphic transfer to the payee’s nominated bank account.

4.3 The Supplier will submit a Tax Invoice to Rio Tinto for each month during which the Supply has been performed within 30 calendar days after the last day of that month.

4.4 All Tax Invoices must contain the following information:

(a) the Purchase Order reference number(s) to which the Tax Invoice relates;
(b) the complete names and addresses of the Parties;
(c) the tax identification number of the Supplier (if applicable);
(d) the date of issuance and period covered by the Tax Invoice;
(e) a description of the Goods sold or Services rendered;
(f) if required by Rio Tinto, timesheets, vouchers and any other evidence of the payments claimed;
(g) any Indirect Transaction Taxes applicable rate and amount; and
(h) any other information required by any applicable law or by Rio Tinto.

4.5 Rio Tinto may deduct or set-off against Tax Invoices any sums required by law to be deducted or which Rio Tinto reasonably believes are due to a member of the Rio Tinto Group.

4.6 Without prejudice to Rio Tinto’s termination rights, if the Supplier fails to perform any of its obligations under the Contract, Rio Tinto may suspend payment of Tax Invoices.

4.7 Rio Tinto will pay the Tax Invoice by the Payment Date, subject to the Contract.

5. Taxes

5.1 If the Supplier is liable to pay, collect or remit any Indirect Transaction Taxes on the Supply, Rio Tinto will pay to the Supplier such additional amount on submission of an Tax Invoice.

5.2 Any reference in the Contract to:
   (a) a cost, expense or other pecuniary liability incurred by a Party; or
   (b) the calculation of consideration or of any indemnity or reimbursement obligation to a cost, must exclude the amount of any Input Tax Credit entitlement of that Party in relation to that cost.

5.3 The Supplier must do everything necessary to ensure that both it and Rio Tinto are eligible for any exemptions, credits, set-offs or deductions in respect of Indirect Transaction Taxes.

5.4 If a Party is lawfully compelled to make a deduction or withholding from a payment to the other Party for or on account of any Taxes, the paying Party may make that deduction or withholding.

5.5 The paying Party will not be liable to pay to the other Party any amount deducted or withheld in accordance with clause 5.4.

5.6 Where a payment is made without a deduction or withholding for or on account of Taxes and such a deduction or withholding was required by any applicable law then:
   (a) the payee must reimburse the paying Party for the amount that should have been withheld or deducted; and
   (b) reimbursement must be within 14 calendar days of receiving an official receipt (or a certified copy of the receipt) evidencing the amount that was required to have been withheld or deducted.

5.7 The Supplier will pay any stamp duty payable in connection with the Contract.

6. Goods

This clause only applies to Goods

6.1 The Supplier must deliver the Goods at the Delivery Point by the Delivery Date.

6.2 The Supplier will be responsible for packing, protecting and transporting the Goods to the Delivery Point in accordance with applicable laws and the Rio Tinto Group's Freight Preparation Policy found at the Rio Tinto Group's website (http://www.riotinto.com/documents/RT_Freight_Preparation_policy.pdf)

6.3 The Supplier will be liable for all costs up to and including the Goods' acceptance by Rio Tinto at the Delivery Point.

6.4 The Supplier must provide Rio Tinto with all necessary documentation evidencing compliance with export and import formalities, including evidence of all Taxes paid.

6.5 Rio Tinto may inspect and test the Goods upon arrival at the Delivery Point, with such inspection to be undertaken where any Goods do not pass Rio Tinto's tests or inspections, Rio Tinto may, in its sole discretion, at the Supplier's cost and risk:
   (a) reject the Goods and require the Supplier to promptly resupply the Goods; or
   (b) require the Supplier to modify the Goods.

6.7 Rio Tinto's acceptance of Goods is without prejudice to any of its rights under the Contract.

6.8 Full unencumbered title to the Goods will pass to Rio Tinto on the earlier of when the Goods are paid for or upon completion of testing, inspection and acceptance of the Goods by Rio Tinto. If Rio Tinto does not inspect any Goods within a reasonable time after delivery, the Goods are deemed to have been accepted by Rio Tinto following a reasonable time after delivery.

6.9 Risk in the Goods will pass to Rio Tinto upon completion of testing, inspection and acceptance.

6.10 To the extent the Goods consist of software which is not Contract IP:
   (a) the software may be delivered by making it available electronically;
   (b) clause 6.8 will not apply to the software;
   (c) on the earlier of when the Goods are paid for or upon completion of testing, inspection and acceptance of the Goods by Rio Tinto, Rio Tinto:
      (i) is granted a non-exclusive, transferable, royalty-free, irrevocable and perpetual licence to use and reproduce the software for its internal business purposes;
      (ii) may transfer and/or sub-licence the software to any other member of the Rio Tinto Group; and
      (iii) may make the software available for use by service providers that are engaged to perform any services for Rio Tinto (or a transferee or sub-licensor under the preceding sub-clause) in connection with the provision of those services.

7. Hire of items

This clause only applies to hire of items

7.1 The Supplier will lease the items identified in the Contract.

7.2 The Supplier must perform all maintenance of the items at its own cost and risk to ensure that the items are in good operating condition at all time.

7.3 The Supplier has the necessary rights in the items to lease them to Rio Tinto.

7.4 Any Personnel provided by the Supplier to operate any hired items will be suitably qualified and trained.

7.5 Rio Tinto will bear the risk in the items from the latter of their delivery at the Site or commissioning until the item is returned to the Supplier.

7.6 At Rio Tinto's request, the Supplier must conduct any commissioning of the items at the Supplier's own cost and risk to Rio Tinto's satisfaction. Rio Tinto's acceptance of a commissioning result in respect of the items shall be without prejudice to its rights under the Contract.

8. Supply of personnel

This clause only applies to the Supply of personnel

8.1 If requested by Rio Tinto, the Supplier must provide Rio Tinto with the Supply of personnel in addition to any Personnel under the Contract.

8.2 All requested personnel shall be employees of the Supplier. Nothing in the Contract shall be construed as conferring an employment relationship between the requested personnel and Rio Tinto.

8.3 Rio Tinto may require the removal of any personnel from the Supply for any reason at any time, and/or require that the personnel vacate the Site. If Rio Tinto exercises its rights under this clause, Rio Tinto shall only pay for the portion of the Supply that has been completed until the required personnel have been removed or vacated.

8.4 The Supplier must not withdraw or replace any personnel supplied without Rio Tinto's consent.

9. Correction of Defects

9.1 Rio Tinto may give the Supplier a Defect Notice until end of the Defect Liability Period requiring the Supplier to rectify any defects in the Supply identified in the Defect Notice.

9.2 The Supplier must rectify the identified defect to Rio Tinto’s satisfaction, at the Supplier’s own cost and risk on receipt of and by the date specified in a Defect Notice.

9.3 If the Supplier fails to comply with clause 9.2, Rio Tinto may rectify the defect itself or by a third party, or reject the Supply and require re-performance, in either case at the Supplier’s risk and with the Supplier indemnifying Rio Tinto’s costs.

9.4 The indemnity in clause 9.3 will survive termination or expiry of the Contract.

9.5 If Rio Tinto submits a Defect Notice, the Defect Liability Period for the relevant Good or Service will recommence on the date
10. Site Access
10.1 Rio Tinto will grant the Supplier reasonable access to the Site for the purpose of the Supplier performing the Contract.
10.2 Rio Tinto may restrict or deny the Supplier or its Personnel access to the Site in its sole discretion.
10.3 If Rio Tinto considers any Equipment defective or improper, Rio Tinto may require the Supplier immediately to suspend work and/or remove the Equipment from the Site at the Supplier's cost and risk.
10.4 If the Supplier does not remove Equipment by the date required by Rio Tinto, Rio Tinto may remove the Equipment at the Supplier's cost and risk.

11. HSE
11.1 The Supplier must comply with:
   (a) Rio Tinto’s HSE policies and standards as may be communicated to the Supplier and amended from time to time by Rio Tinto; and
   (b) all relevant HSE laws and guidelines.
11.2 Rio Tinto may at any time require the Supplier to supply and/or amend its HSE management plan.
11.3 If the Supplier breaches any HSE-related obligations, Rio Tinto may, without prejudice to any of its other rights under the Contract, require the Supplier and/or its Personnel immediately to suspend performance of the Supply and/or leave the Site at the Supplier’s risk and cost.

12. Records & Audits
12.1 The Supplier must keep an accurate and complete record in reasonable detail of all documents relating to the Supply and retain copies of them for a period of 6 years, or any longer period as required by any applicable law, following expiry or termination of the Contract.
12.2 The Supplier must provide Rio Tinto access to its records and accounts to confirm:
   (a) pricing;
   (b) the applicability of any Indirect Transaction Taxes; and
   (c) any other amounts payable to or by the Supplier under the Contract.
12.3 Rio Tinto may request an audit of the Supplier’s compliance with the Contract for any reason.
12.4 The Supplier must allow Rio Tinto access to its premises and personnel to conduct any audit.

13. Assignment & Subcontracting
13.1 The Supplier must not assign or subcontract all or any of its rights, benefits or obligations under the Contract without Rio Tinto’s prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
13.2 If the Supplier assigns or subcontracts any of its obligations under the Contract, it will remain liable in full for the performance thereof.

14. Confidentiality
14.1 Each Party will keep confidential all Information given to it by the other Party in connection with the Contract unless the receiving Party has obtained the written consent of the disclosing Party to disclose any such Information (which consent may be withheld by the disclosing Party in its discretion) or disclosure is allowed under 14.3.
14.2 A Party will not use Information of the other Party (including duplicating, reproducing, distributing, disseminating or directly or indirectly deriving such information), except to the extent necessary to comply with, or exercise its rights under, the Contract unless it has the prior written consent of the other Party.
14.3 A Party may only disclose Information of the other Party to its Personnel and professional advisors provided such persons are bound to the confidentiality obligations under this Contract. Each Party agrees to be responsible for the acts and omissions of its Personnel and professional advisors to whom it discloses the Information.

14.4 Rio Tinto may disclose the Information and the Contract to any Rio Tinto Group member or Rio Tinto User.
14.5 The obligations of confidence under this clause do not apply to Information which has become generally available to the public (other than arising from a breach of this clause 14), or disclosures required by law.
14.6 Each Party indemnifies the other and the other’s Affiliates for any Losses that may be incurred as a result of a breach of this clause 14.
14.7 The Supplier will not make any public announcement about entering into the Contract or its contents without Rio Tinto’s prior written approval of the announcement and its wording in its sole discretion.

15. Data Protection
15.1 The Rio Tinto Personal Data to be Processed under this Contract and the nature and purpose of the Processing and its proposed duration is set out in the Contract.
15.2 Unless otherwise agreed, where an applicable law makes a distinction between a data controller and data processor, Rio Tinto is the data controller and the Supplier is the data processor.
15.3 In addition to its general obligations to comply with applicable laws under 15.8, the Supplier must:
   (a) only Process Rio Tinto Personal Data for the purposes of providing the Supply under the Contract and as directed by Rio Tinto in writing. If the Supplier reasonably believes that by following such directions it would be in breach of applicable laws, the Supplier must inform Rio Tinto of its concerns before Processing the relevant data;
   (b) not disclose Rio Tinto Personal Data without Rio Tinto’s prior written consent, unless the disclosure is required by applicable law or otherwise complies with 15.3(c);
   (c) not engage any Subcontractor to Process Rio Tinto Personal Data without obtaining a specific or general written authorisation of Rio Tinto permitting it to subcontract;
   (d) assist Rio Tinto, upon request, to respond to requests from data subjects to exercise their rights (including with respect to access to and correction of Personal Data);
   (e) cooperate and provide information required by Rio Tinto so it can meet its obligations under applicable law;
   (f) promptly notify Rio Tinto if it receives a complaint from any individual regarding the way his or her Rio Tinto Personal Data has been Processed and advise Rio Tinto how it has addressed the complaint;
   (g) provide reasonable assistance to Rio Tinto to enable Rio Tinto or another party authorised by Rio Tinto to audit the Supplier’s compliance with its obligations under this clause; and
   (h) if requested, enter into a data transfer agreement with Rio Tinto:
      (i) based on clauses approved by the European Commission as the standard contractual clauses for the transfer of personal data to processors in third countries (EU model clauses); or
      (ii) as otherwise required to ensure any applicable restrictions on the cross-border transfer of Personal Data are complied with.
15.4 The Supplier must put in place and maintain appropriate technical and organisational measures to secure Rio Tinto Personal Data.
15.5 If there is any situation involving:
   (a) accidental loss or destruction of, or unauthorised disclosure of or access to, Rio Tinto Personal Data; or
   (b) a cyber security or data security breach on any system (including those of its Subcontractor) used in connection with the Services which has or may impact Rio Tinto Personal Data;
the Supplier must:
   (i) report such incident to Rio Tinto without undue delay;
   (ii) mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect of such disclosure or access that is known to the Supplier or its Subcontractors;
   (iii) cooperate with Rio Tinto in providing any notices to... individuals or regulators regarding the incident, as directed by Rio Tinto; and

(iv) cooperate with any investigation into the incident that is subsequently undertaken by any data privacy authority, in consultation with Rio Tinto.

15.6 Rio Tinto may share any Personal Data that the Supplier provides to it under the Contract with third parties contracted to provide services to Rio Tinto.

15.7 At any time after expiry or termination of the Contract, the Supplier must return, destroy, store or dispose of the Rio Tinto Personal Data at its own cost as directed by Rio Tinto unless applicable law requires the Supplier to retain the Personal Data.

15.8 Each Party warrants to the other that it will comply with its respective obligations under all applicable laws relating to the Processing of Personal Data collected by or disclosed to it pursuant to the Contract.

16. Representations and Warranties

16.1 Rio Tinto gives no representation or warranty as to the completeness or accuracy of any information provided to the Supplier in connection with the Contract or its performance.

16.2 The Supplier represents and warrants to Rio Tinto that:

(a) all information and communications, including the Deliverables, it provides in connection with performance of the Contract are complete and accurate;

(b) it will comply with all applicable laws and has (and will maintain) all permits and/or licences necessary to perform its obligations under the Contract;

(c) the Supply will be provided in an efficient manner and will be of the highest standard and in accordance with the Specifications (as applicable);

(d) all Goods and Services will comply with the Specifications (as applicable) and will be of satisfactory and merchantable quality, free of defects and fit for purpose;

(e) it has the right to sell, and Rio Tinto will receive, the Goods free from any Liens;

(f) where it has procured Goods from a third party, the Supplier will obtain all Manufacturer Warranties for those Goods for the benefit of Rio Tinto and the Rio Tinto Users;

(g) any Equipment used on Site by the Supplier will be in safe working condition;

(h) its Personnel will be appropriately qualified, trained (including in HSE) and skilled to perform the Supply;

(i) all items hired to Rio Tinto will be suitable for the purposes which Rio Tinto needs them;

(j) the Deliverables, or use of the Deliverables by Rio Tinto, will not infringe a third party’s IPR;

(k) it will comply with all of Rio Tinto’s policies, standards, guidelines and controls as notified to the Supplier from time to time.

16.3 Where the Supplier breaches clause 16.2, Rio Tinto may, in its sole discretion:

(a) instruct the Supplier to suspend performance of the Supply or the Contract immediately;

(b) instruct the Supplier to leave the Site immediately;

(c) instruct the Supplier to remove any or all of its Equipment from the Site immediately;

(d) terminate the Contract either in whole or part; and/or

(e) claim damages from the Supplier.

17. Indemnities

17.1 The Supplier indemnifies Rio Tinto, the Rio Tinto Group and each Rio Tinto User and their respective Personnel from all Loss of whatever nature suffered, sustained or incurred, arising out of or in connection with:

(a) any breach by the Supplier of the Contract;

(b) any negligent act or omission or any act of wilful misconduct by the Supplier or its Personnel in connection with the Contract;

(c) any claims brought by any third party as a result of clause 17.1(a) or 17.1(b);

(d) any death, personal injury, physical loss or damage caused or sustained by the Supplier’s Personnel; and

(e) any claim brought by a third party:

(i) relating to a breach of that third party’s IPR as a result of the Supplier’s performance under or in connection with the Contract; or

(ii) that use of Goods or Deliverables breaches that third party’s IPR.

The Supplier will not be liable under Clause 17.1 to the extent that the Liability was caused, or contributed to, by (as the case requires) Rio Tinto or Rio Tinto User’s negligent acts or omissions or wilful misconduct.

18. Insurance

18.1 The Supplier must, at its sole expense, purchase and maintain the following insurance:

(a) general liability insurance with coverage for an amount of not less than $5,000,000 for each and every claim;

(b) Worker’s Compensation or Employer’s Liability insurance in compliance with any applicable laws. If no statutory requirement, with coverage for an amount of not less than $5,000,000 for each claim in the aggregate;

(c) if the Contract requires the Supplier to use or provide for use of motor vehicles, motor vehicle insurance with coverage for an amount of not less than 5,000,000 for each and every claim;

(d) if the Contract requires the Supplier to provide professional advice or services, professional liability insurance with coverage for an amount of not less than $5,000,000 for each claim and in the aggregate;

(e) if the Contract requires the Supplier to use or provide for use of plant or equipment for use on Site (including the hire of items to Rio Tinto), insurance covering all loss and damage to such plant and/or equipment, with coverage for an amount not less than 100% of replacement value;

(f) if the Contract requires the Supplier to perform any operations using hazardous substances, pollution liability insurance with coverage for an amount of not less than $10,000,000 for each and every claim;

(g) if the Contract requires the Supplier to be responsible for transport of property owned by the Rio Tinto Group, goods in transit (carrier) insurance cover all liabilities for loss or damage to such property for 100% of replacement value.

The limits of liability noted in the clause above are in United States of America currency, but can be in equivalent amounts of other currencies as agreed by Rio Tinto.

18.2 The Supplier must provide the following coverage endorsements for each category of insurance noted above except in the case of the insurance in Clauses 18.1(b) and 18.1(d) to:

(a) include the Rio Tinto Group and its Personnel as additional insureds;

(b) include a cross liability clause, noting that no “insured-versus-insured” exclusion exists and each party comprising the insured will be considered a separate entity, the insurance applies as if a separate policy has been issued to each party;

(c) waive all express or implied rights of subrogation against the Rio Tinto Group and its Personnel, unless prohibited by law; and

(d) provide that a breach of a condition or term of insurance by one insurer will not adversely affect the cover provided to another insurer under the policy.

18.3 Any worker’s compensation insurance policy issued under Australian law, must to the extent allowed at law, provide that Rio Tinto is recognised as principal and will include a principal’s indemnity extension for statutory benefits and at common law in favour of Rio Tinto. Such extension must also provide a waiver of subrogation from the insurer to the Rio Tinto Group including statutory benefits and common law.

18.4 The Supplier will provide to Rio Tinto certificates of currency and endorsements upon request.
18.5 The Supplier must ensure that its Subcontractors have the benefit of or maintain insurances similar to those set out in this clause.

19. Force Majeure

19.1 A Party will not be liable for any delay or failure to perform any of its obligations under the Contract (other than an obligation to pay money) if as soon as possible after the beginning of the Force Majeure affecting the ability of the Party to perform any of its obligations under the Contract, it gives a Notice to the other Party that complies with Clause 19.2.

19.2 A Notice given under Clause 19.1 must:
   (a) specify the obligations the Party cannot perform;
   (b) fully describe the Force Majeure;
   (c) estimate the time during which the Force Majeure will continue; and
   (d) specify the measures proposed to be adopted to remedy or abate the Force Majeure.

19.3 The Party that is prevented from carrying out its obligations under the Contract as a result of Force Majeure must:
   (a) remedy the Force Majeure to the extent reasonably practicable and resume performance of its obligations as soon as reasonably possible;
   (b) take all action reasonably practicable to mitigate any Liabilities suffered by the other Party as a result of its failure to carry out its obligations under the Contract.

20. Term and Termination

20.1 The Contract will commence on the earlier of the date of acknowledgement of receipt of the Purchase Order by the Supplier or the date the Supplier commences to perform the Supply, and will remain in force, unless terminated earlier in accordance with the Contract, until the completion by the Supplier of all of its obligations under the Contract.

20.2 Rio Tinto may terminate the Contract or any part of it, by giving the Supplier written notice which provides for at least 30 calendar days' for the Supplier to cease the Supply.

20.3 On termination under clause 20.2, the Supplier is entitled to:
   (a) amounts due by Rio Tinto to the Supplier for the Supply actually provided prior to the date of the termination; and
   (b) actual costs the Supplier is not otherwise able to recover or mitigate, incurred by the Supplier solely as a result of the termination for:
      (i) materials already purchased by the Supplier solely for the provision of Goods; and
      (ii) removing the Supplier's Equipment (if any) from the Site, back to its place of origin.

20.4 Rio Tinto may terminate the Contract, or any part of it, without liability, by written notice if Supplier:
   (a) materially breaches any of its obligations under the Contract and such breach continues for 14 calendar days after receipt of written notice of the breach; or
   (b) becomes insolvent, bankrupt, makes an (assignment for the benefit of its creditors or files a petition or other proceeding in bankruptcy or for protection from its creditors, or if a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy is appointed over all or any of its assets or business, or any proceeding in bankruptcy, receivership or liquidation is initiated against such Party and is not dismissed within 30 calendar days.

20.5 Clauses 6.10 and 17.1 survive termination of the Contract.

21. Intellectual Property

21.1 The Supplier remains the owner of the Supplier IP.

21.2 The Supplier grants to the Rio Tinto Group a non-exclusive, transferable, royalty free, irrevocable, sub-licensable and perpetual licence to use (including reproduce, modify or adapt) all Supplier IP necessary to benefit from the Supply or use the Deliverables or Contract IP.

21.3 Rio Tinto remains the owner of the Rio Tinto IP.

21.4 Rio Tinto will grant (or procure the grant) to the Supplier, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable licence to use the Rio Tinto IP and the Contract IP for the sole purpose of performing the Contract.

21.5 The Supplier must not reproduce, communicate or otherwise deal with the Rio Tinto IP and the Contract IP for any purpose other than to perform the Contract. The Supplier must not register or attempt to register any interest in or otherwise assert ownership of the Rio Tinto IP or the Contract IP.

21.6 The Supplier must disclose to Rio Tinto all Contract IP in a format acceptable to Rio Tinto as soon as it is created.

21.7 All Contract IP will be Rio Tinto property as and when created and the Supplier hereby assigns (and will procure the assignment of) all rights, title and interest in and to the Contract IP to Rio Tinto. In addition to any other obligations, the Supplier must, to the extent reasonably practicable, include in all Contract IP a statement to the effect that all rights, title and interest, including copyright, is owned by and assigned to the Rio Tinto Company.

21.8 The Supplier represents and warrants to Rio Tinto that if any third party IPR or moral rights are used by it in the performance of the Supply or by Rio Tinto in the use and enjoyment of the Supply that it has obtained, or will obtain, in the use and enjoyment of the Deliverables, the Supplier will obtain at no cost to Rio Tinto all necessary licences and consents to use (including reproduce, modify or adapt), or assignments of, such rights.

21.9 If Rio Tinto is prevented from operating or using any part of the Supply, including the Deliverables, as a result of any IPR claim, the Supplier must (at its cost) procure such rights as Rio Tinto needs for use under the Contract.

21.10 If the Supplier cannot promptly (and in not more than 60 calendar days) procure the rights referred to in clause 21.9, Rio Tinto may direct the Supplier to immediately (at the Supplier's risk and cost):
   (a) alter the Supply to avoid infringement or violation of the IPR or any of them;
   (b) replace or re-perform the Supply as applicable with Supply which does not infringe the IPR; or
   (c) remove or discontinue the Supply as applicable and reimburse Rio Tinto for any sums already paid to the Supplier and any costs in connection with the removed or discontinued Supply.

22. Disputes

22.1 In the event of any dispute, question or difference of opinion between Rio Tinto and the Supplier arising out of or in connection with the Contract (Dispute), a Party may give to the other Party a Notice (Request to Negotiate) specifying the Dispute and requiring its resolution under this Clause 22.

22.2 If the Dispute is not resolved within 7 calendar days after a Request to Negotiate is given to the other Party, then either Party may nominate one representative from its senior management to resolve the Dispute (each, a Dispute Representative).

22.3 If the Dispute is not resolved within 35 calendar days after a Request to Negotiate is given to the other Party, then either Party may commence legal proceedings in the forum determined by Clause 23 to resolve the matter.

22.4 During the existence of any Dispute, the Parties must continue to perform all of their obligations under the Contract unless the Parties otherwise agree.

22.5 Nothing in this Clause 22 prevents a Party from seeking any urgent interlocutory relief which may be required in relation to the Contract.

23. Governing Law and Forum

23.1 The Contract is governed by the laws applicable at the address of Rio Tinto where that address is in Australia, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Iceland, Japan, Madagascar, New Zealand, Serbia, South Africa, South Korea, the United Kingdom or the United States of America and the Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that place and waive their right to trial by jury.
